

Pictorial News From Rebellion-Ridden China

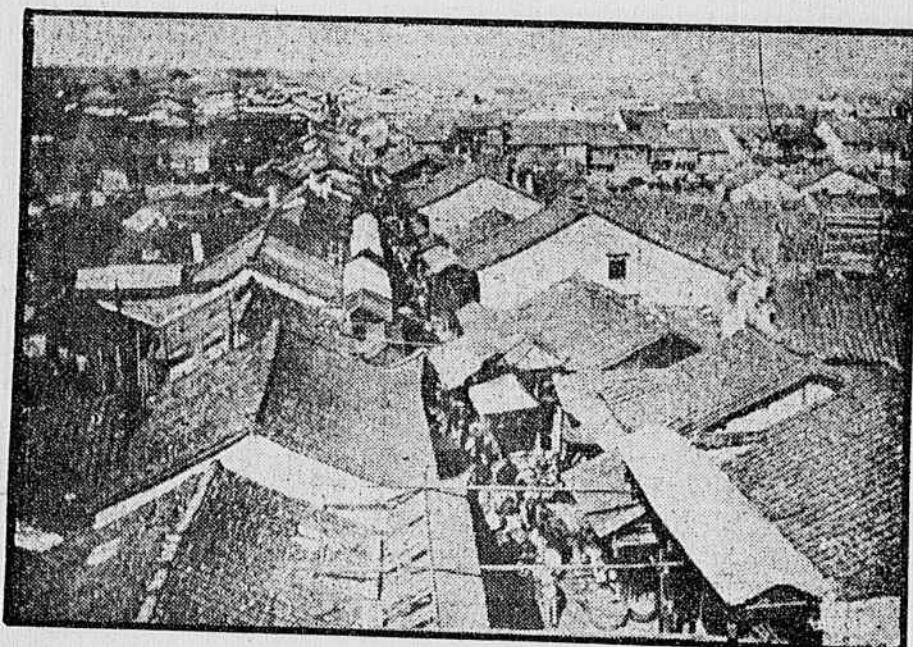

ADMIRAL SAITO, OF JAPAN.
Who has command of the Japanese fleet in Chinese waters.

WUCHANG IN THE FOREGROUND AND HANKOW ON THE OPPOSITE SIDE OF THE YANGTSE RIVER.

REAR-ADMIRAL JOSEPH B. MURDOCK,
Commander of the American naval station in Asiatic waters.

PART OF THE CITY OF NANKING.

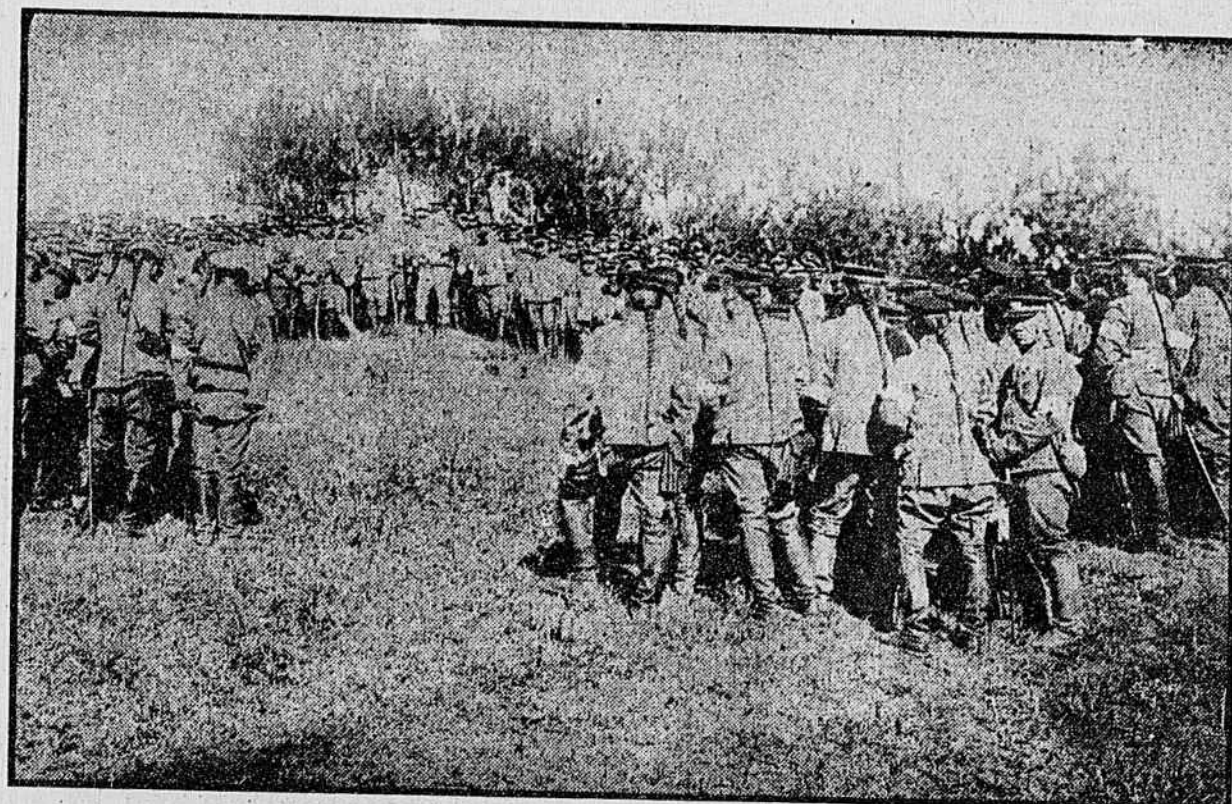

VICEROY TSEN CHUN HSUAN,
Who has been sent by his government to crush the Chinese rebellion in the Szechuan Province.

GENERAL VIEW OF CITY OF NANKING.

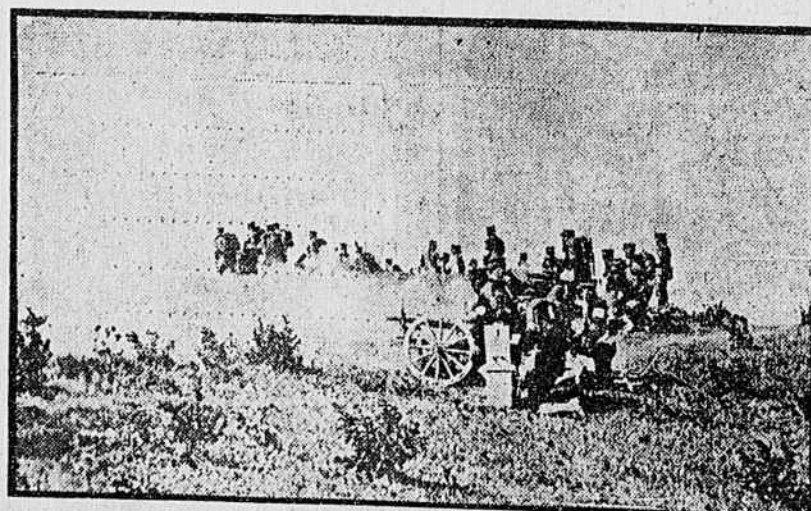

A NEW TYPE OF GUN NOW BEING USED BY THE CHINESE ARMY.

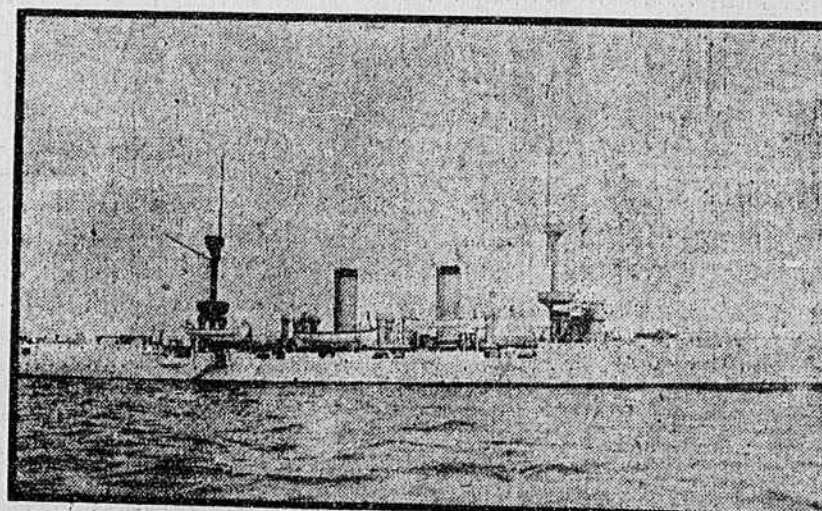

STAFF OFFICERS OF THE CHINESE ARMY DISCUSSING RESULT OF DAY'S MANOEUVRES.

DR. SUN YAT SEN,
the famous revolutionary leader

TYPE OF ARTILLERY WHICH THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IS USING.

United States cruiser New Orleans sailed from Manila for Shanghai, China, to be at hand if American sailors are needed to protect American interests.

KANG YU WEI,
Exiled leader, whose recall is demanded by Chinese legislators.